Marks and Standards apply.

3. Progression

3.1 Exit Awards

Upon successful completion of 60 credits of taught modules, students may exit with a Graduate Diploma in Theology and World Religions, as indicated in the academic structure.

Upon successful completion of 30 credits of taught modules, students may exit with a Graduate Certificate in Theology and World Religions, as indicated in the academic structure.

Where a student requests to exit a programme with a lesser award, the following precision rules apply. Core modules, must be included in the calculation of the precision mark. When a student has completed more ECTS credits than needed for the award, any remaining credits required for the calculation of the precision mark will be selected from the remaining modules taken, using the best marks obtained. All marks used in the calculation of the precision mark will be the marks obtained at first attempt.

4. Compensation

Marks and Standards apply.
